Extra-curricular Activities

Secretary, CITESC, PHINMA-University of Pangasinan

JULY 2023 – PRESENT

As the Secretary of the College of Information Technology Student Council, I'm playing a vital role in fostering a supportive and engaging environment for students pursuing IT careers. I'm effectively managing administrative tasks, maintaining accurate records, and facilitating communication among council members and faculty. Through my attention to detail and organizational skills, I contribute to the smooth operation of council meetings and events, ensuring effective collaboration and positive outcomes.

Technical Director, PYDRRM - Asinbolo

APR 2021 – JAN 2022

Successfully led the technical operations and production aspects of radio broadcasts to ensure the smooth and professional delivery of content, collaborated closely with the creative team to provide technical expertise and innovative solutions for recording, editing, and mixing audio content, and spearheaded troubleshooting efforts to swiftly resolve technical issues to maintain uninterrupted broadcasts. Through my dedication and passion for press, volunteerism, and radio production, I played a pivotal role in fostering engaging and informative programs that resonated with the organization's target audience.

Managing Editor, The Omniscient, Lyceum Northwestern University

JULY 2020 – MAY 2021

Led a team of writers, editors, and designers in the production of a high-quality and engaging university publication, oversaw the editorial process, ensuring adherence to style guidelines and maintaining consistency in content tone and voice, collaborated closely with contributors to develop compelling story ideas and provide constructive feedback for improvement and managed deadlines, and coordinated production schedules, and maintained efficient communication channels within the team.
